

How Common Purpose has corrupted the British police

On the surface, Common Purpose is an educational charity that does leadership and networking development training. In reality, Common Purpose is a corrupt, subversive and sinister organisation which seeks to destroy the national identity of Britain, to destroy democracy in Britain and introduce the EU Police State into Britain.

Most people have never heard of Common Purpose which is strange because Common Purpose has corruptly abused millions of pounds of taxpayers' money.

Common Purpose is a change agent being used by Fabian New Labour to implement its hidden Communitarian agenda. It is a 'Trojan Horse' fifth column operation and part of the mechanism being used by Brussels to undermine and soften up British society to pave the way for the take-over of Britain by the European Union (EUSSR).

One way that Common Purpose are doing this is by infiltrating their 'graduates' into positions of power in the media, national and local government, the police and the judiciary. Common Purpose needs these 'graduates' to run the bureaucracy of the New Dictatorship of what they call the 'post-democratic' society. All Common Purpose 'graduates' have been corrupted and are totally untrustworthy.

British governments should govern – not dictate to and betray their own citizens.

One of the main targets of Common Purpose is the police because Common Purpose and New Labour want to merge Britain into the EU Police State. New Labour has already turned Britain into a police state. There is a surveillance camera system in Britain which would have been beyond the wildest dreams of the Stasi.

Police officers are supposed to operate 'without fear or favour' but there are plenty of favours being done by senior Common Purpose police officers for their colleagues in the Common Purpose network. There is no need whatsoever for police officers to be part of any Common Purpose style network and they should certainly not take instructions from other members of the Common Purpose network. Police officers are also supposed to have allegiance to the Crown and not to Brussels.

All police officers who are Common Purpose 'graduates' have been corrupted and are totally untrustworthy. They are a disgrace to their uniform and should be removed from office immediately. Common Purpose has corrupted and destroyed the reputation for integrity of the British police. The people of Britain have a really serious problem to solve. Common Purpose should be investigated for fraud by police not corrupted by Common Purpose.

What YOU can do to help stop Common Purpose corruption:

I urge you to do a search on the Web for 'Common Purpose' to find out more about it and then go to the discussion forum of your choice and discuss Common Purpose. Spread the word about this corrupt Common Purpose organisation before it is too late.
